Experience the home grown way of life.

Everyone has secrets. But sometimes they are hard to keep. At Scarborough Wine Co we can't help ourselves, we've just got to let it out of the bag and share all the best parts of the Hunter Valley region, including everything we've garnered over 30 years in the region. That's why we've devised this Home Grown guide.

Want to know the insider knowledge of the region? Where Scarbie goes for a beer? Where Merralea heads for fresh produce or where Jerome finds the best coffee? Not to mention helpful hints on accommodation. There's only one place you can find all this out and more and that's the Scarborough Home Grown Guide – an invaluable resource to all things Hunter Valley.

We have always wanted to produce a guide to the things we love about the Hunter Valley and to be able to share it with our other Scarborough family members makes it even better.

And don't forget to let us know what you think of our suggestions and what your favourite places are in the Hunter Valley – we would love to hear from you. You can find us on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram at @scarboroughwine or email us at cellar@scarboroughwine.com.au

We look forward to welcoming you soon to the Hunter Valley.

Cheers Ian, Merralea, Jerome, Sally and staff.
